How to make suggestions, compliment us, or complain.

Suggestions, compliments or complaints

Norfolk and Suffolk NHS Foundation Trust values your feedback and can use it when considering changes to services.

How to make a suggestion or compliment

If you would like to make a suggestion or give a compliment about the service you have experienced, we would be happy to hear from you.

How to make a complaint

We recognise that things may not always go as you would expect or like them to and when that happens we want to hear about it.

Whatever your concern is, it will be treated confidentially and sensitively. We assure you that making a complaint will not adversely affect the care you receive, or the care of the service user you are acting on behalf of.

- If something happens which causes you concern, we would like to try and put it right straight away. Please speak with the service or team staff first. They will make every effort to address your concerns and sort out any problems
- If you feel unable to raise your concern with the service or team staff, or if you feel your concern has not been resolved satisfactorily, you can register a complaint with the team manager, or contact the complaints team

The complaints team may be contacted at:

Complaints Team
Norfolk and Suffolk NHS Foundation Trust
Hellesdon Hospital
Drayton High Road
Norwich
Norfolk NR6 5BE

Telephone: 01603 421486
Email: complaints@nsft.nhs.uk

If you are making a complaint on behalf of somebody else, the Trust will usually need authorisation from that person agreeing to you acting on their behalf.

If you, or a patient on whose behalf you are complaining, has been detained under the Mental Health Act, you may also contact the Care Quality Commission to register your concern.

The Care Quality Commission may be contacted at:

Care Quality Commission
Citygate
Gallowgate
Newcastle upon Tyne NE1 4PA

Telephone: 03000 616161
Fax: 03000 616171
Email: enquiries@cqc.org.uk

Your complaint can be made in person, by telephone, email or in writing. Should you wish to make a complaint in person please call 01603 421486 to arrange an appointment.

A complaint must usually be made within 12 months of the date on which the matter occurred or came to the attention of the complainant. Discretion may be applied to complaints made outside this period, where there are special circumstances.

Should you require support in making your complaint, there are some free advice services which may be able to help. Contact details are provided on the back of this leaflet.

You can also discuss your concerns with your local Healthwatch service:

Our standards for dealing with complaints:

We will:

- Acknowledge your complaint within three working days of receipt
- Arrange for an appropriate investigation of your concerns
- Offer to discuss your complaint with you
- Inform you of the investigation process and likely timeframe
- Keep you informed of progress
- Provide you with a clear and detailed response

If you are still unhappy after receiving a response from the Trust, we ask that you tell us so that we can review the matter in order to address your remaining concerns.

Following the Trust's response, you have the right to ask the Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman to review your complaint.

The Ombudsman may be contacted at:

Millbank Tower, Millbank, London SW1P 4QP
Telephone: 0345 015 4033
