

Making “A road less rocky” Caring for somebody with dementia

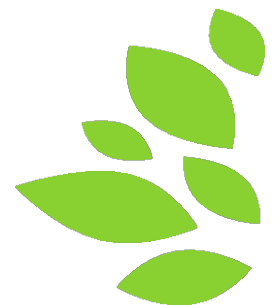

The Kings Centre,
Norwich
22nd May
10am-5pm

‘A Road Less Rocky’ is a forum for those who’s life is affected by dementia and their Carers. All are welcome!

It is a day of talks from experts tackling the difficult stages of dementia. “A Road Less Rocky” is based on research commissioned by the Carers Trust. It examines challenges faced by those caring for someone with dementia.

Advice stalls and talks from :

- Psychiatrists
- Those living with dementia
- Carers of those with dementia
- And more

The Kings Centre, Kings Street, Norwich, Norfolk NR1 1PH
For further info contact Howard Tidman (07557290169/
howard.tidman@nsft.nhs.uk) or Lisa Breame (01603 887019/
lisa.breame@nsft.nhs.uk)